

Hello fellow analyst, we are very happy to see your interest in ABI. This technical case study on data visualization was designed so that we can understand how you solve problems and work with creating visuals. We hope you will explore the following points:

- Create two different charts that overlap and are displayed according to the selected chart type.

- Create a single chart with a toggle between absolute values and percentages

5-Conclusion

Create a textual analysis in a hidden tab with key insights